

Affidavit in Support of Application for Admission on Foreign License

I, _____, having been duly sworn, deposes and affirms as follows:
(Full name of applicant)

1. I was duly admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the State(s) of:

_____ on _____

_____ on _____

_____ on _____

And I have been a member in good standing of the bar of each identified court since that date.

2. I intend to engage actively and predominately in the practice of law in the state of Indiana.

Admission and Discipline Rule 6 provides that an applicant for admission on a foreign license must file an affidavit of intent to engage in the active practice of law (as defined in Rule 6 § 1(a)) predominately in Indiana. According to Admission and Discipline Rule 6 § 1(b)(i), the term “predominately” means that the applicant’s practice in Indiana must exceed, or be equal to, his or her practice in all other jurisdictions combined.

Please attach a detailed written statement to this affidavit demonstrating how you intend to engage in the active practice of law predominately in Indiana.
